Stephan Kück, CEO

Stephan Kück has been responsible for German and European corporate development in his function as CEO of Computop since January 1, 2010.
The trained banker started his professional career in 1989 at the former Stadtsparkasse Bamberg (now Sparkasse Bamberg). Stephan Kück took important career steps from customer advisor to head of new media to head of central services with over 100 employees. His areas of responsibility included IT operations, payment transactions, card business and back office.

Personal information:
Stephan Kück is married and the father of two children. His sporting passion is basketball.

press@computop.com